Q. Now, that's not the same house that your father lived in, is that correct? A. Oh, no, the old house is still standing there. Q. What kind of house did your father live in? A. An old wooden house, it was a frame house. Q. Is it presently occupied to your knowledge? A. No, it can't nobody's been in there for all them years. It's not in good condition now? 9 A. No, indeed. You go by there in the summertime you can never see it the weeds are so high. That's what I'm talking about. If she knows she owned that piece of property, I went there about eight (8) years ago and cleaned it up. How come she didn't say something about it then. Q. Alright. Thank you, Mr. Lee. Mr. Lee, when your father lived on what you described as a nine-tenths (.9) acre of 16 land did he continue to use any land beyond that mine-tenths (.9) of an acre? 18 A. I couldn't say. Now, I left there after he sold it to 19 Mrs. Hawkins, I told you I wasn't there. 20 Q. So, you don't know, is that your testimony? 21 A. That's right. 22 Q. No further questions. 23 BND OF EXAMINATION CROSS-EXAMINATION 25 BY ATTORNEY HERBERT D. MORRISON: Q. Okay, just one (1) question, Mr. Lee. This nine-tenths (.9) that your Dad lived on was there a fence around that
